Green Party General Assembly
San Diego, Dec 2000

Decisions Summary

I   Minutes of last general assembly-

No one who reviewed the notes opposed them. Many people indicated that they had not read them, and were reminded of their personal responsibility to read them and come prepared to the general assembly. Linda Howard was added as facilitator of one of the sessions. CONSENSED as amended.

II   Consent Calendar

A   Clearinghouse budget- CONSENSED

B   Coordinating Committee at-large seat- CONSENSED

C   Energy resolution- One concern raised- NOT CONSENSED- went back to working group

III   Two-year Plan- Mike Feinstein

It has been discovered through experience that our organization needed to be tightened up. There was a haphazard process of proposals and decision-making. It was decided to incorporate longer-term planning.

CONSENSUS reached, with friendly amendments

IV   By-laws change- CC at-large elections-

CONSENSUS reached, with friendly amendments. The amendment for setting the election at the first general assembly of the year was accepted; the amendment for filling vacancies was deferred to the next general assembly.

By-laws Committee will work out implementing language.

V   Green Party section in the state election code Proposal:

Affirming that the adoption of a Green Party Election code is important, and we want the Electoral Reform working group to take input given at this general assembly and come back next general assembly with specific provisions on which we can test for consensus.

There were 4 unresolved concerns- all stood aside. CONSENSUS

VI   Continuing State Party affiliation with ASGP- 2 proposals:

A   Reaffirmation of ASGP affiliation

Affiliation- One unresolved concern of Lerner that we are not also affiliating with G/GPUSA- Stood aside- CONSENSUS

B   Delegate representation (if above passes)

Delegate reps. Jo Chamberlain of San Mateo and John Strawn of Santa Barbara were affirmed as reps to the ASGP. Beth Moore Haines and GPCA Treasurer, Mike Wyman were affirmed as alternates. CONSENSUS
